

German Language Diplomas awarded to German learning students of Carmel Convent School

German Language Diplomas were awarded to the students of the Carmel Convent School, Chanakyapuri, New Delhi on 2nd May 2023. Mr. Jochen Schindelarz from the Cultural Department, Embassy of Federal Republic of Germany, New Delhi was Chief Guest of the ceremony and did the honours of handing over the DSDI and DSDII certificates to 32 students of the school. Mr. Jochen Schindelarz addressed the German learning students of the school and congratulated them on their good performance.

The German Diploma Level I (DSDI) was introduced in the school in 2015. Since then, approximately 20-35 students are writing the diploma successfully every year. In 2018 the school, students received the permission to write the Diploma Level II Exam (DSD II). Each year students from Carmel are able to pursue their studies in Germany on receiving the scholarship.

Sister Tina Maria D'souza, Principal of Carmel Convent School thanked Mr. Jochen Schindelarz and Mr Matthias Stähle, from ZFA (Central Agency of German Schools Abroad) for gracing the occasion.
