

Intra Class Slam Poetry Competition for class XI A,B,C

17th May 2024

An Intra Class Slam Poetry Competition was organized by the English Department of the school for the students of class 11ABC on Friday, 17th May 2024 in the Junior School Yoga Room. Students were asked to delve into the extraordinary within the ordinary by composing an ode to any mundane yet essential item of their daily lives - be it a menstrual pad, a tableside mirror, a tea-cup or even a tube of kajal.

Ms. Sharon Joslin and Ms. Archana Sharma presided over the competition as judges. A total of 12 students participated in the same and prizes were awarded to the 3 best performances. The 1st prize was awarded to Ms. Mabel Sankalp, the 2nd prize was conferred upon Ms. Anwita Bose and Ms. Samaira Ahmed's performance was judged to be deserving of the third prize.

